

Residential Property Disclosure Exemption Form

To Be Completed By Owner

Property Address: 15050 Indian Hills Road, Mount Vernon, OH

Owner's Name(s): Linda Vogt, Trustee

Ohio law requires owners of residential real estate (1-4 family) to complete and provide to the buyer a Residential Property Disclosure form disclosing certain conditions and information concerning the property known by the owner. The Residential Property Disclosure Form requirement applies to most, but not all, transfers or sales of residential property.

Listed below are the most common transfers that are exempt from the Residential Property Disclosure Form requirement.

The owner states that the exemption marked below is a true and accurate statement regarding the proposed transfer:

- (1) A transfer pursuant to a court order, such as probate or bankruptcy court;
(2) A transfer by a lender who has acquired the property by deed in lieu of foreclosure;
[X] (3) A transfer by an executor, a guardian, a conservator, or a trustee;
(4) A transfer of new construction that has never been lived in;
(5) A transfer to a buyer who has lived in the property for at least one year immediately prior to the sale;
(6) A transfer from an owner who both has inherited the property and has not lived in the property within one year immediately prior to the sale;
(7) A transfer where either the owner or buyer is a government entity.

ALTHOUGH A TRANSACTION MAY BE EXEMPT FOR THE REASON STATED ABOVE, THE OWNER MAY STILL HAVE A LEGAL DUTY TO DISCLOSE ANY KNOWN LATENT DEFECTS OF MATERIAL FACTS TO THE BUYER.

OWNERS'S CERTIFICATION

By signing below, I state that the proposed transfer is exempt from the Residential Property Disclosure Form requirement. I further state that no real estate licensee has advised me regarding the completion of this form. I understand that an attorney should be consulted with any questions regarding the Residential Property Disclosure Form requirement or my duty to disclose defects of other material facts.
